February to March 2012 Edition

Pastor's Message

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Have you ever noticed that many of us see church attendance as an obligation and a troublesome duty, rather than as a gift? We need to be mindful of the fact that living in a society of many temptations and countless mixed messages, we badly need the encouragement of one another to help us become and remain strong Christians. It is only by supporting one another that we are able to avoid distraction, remain focused, and order our priorities rightly. That is why St. Paul writes "Let us not give up the habit of meeting together . . . but let us encourage one another all the more." (Heb. 10:25).

In visiting the shut-ins of our parish, I am struck by the fact that they who can no longer attend church because of physical limitation, appreciate this gift more than any others. Remarkably, however, their deprivation does not cause their faith to cool or their enthusiasm to wane. They eagerly wait for the sacraments of the Church to be brought to them, and many request and listen to the tapes of the Bible study classes, Sunday sermons, and daily meditations we make available to them. Their forced confinement is not marked by a decline in faith, but in a deepening of their spiritual lives

What a lesson the shut-ins provide for us! For those who attend church, they are a reminder that our presence at worship is not the fulfillment of a responsibility but the receipt of a gift and an opportunity for respite and renewal. For those others of us, all other superficial excuses aside, who are unable to attend worship because of illness, the limitations of age, the special responsibilities of our livelihood, or any other legitimate reason, these deeply spiritual people encourage us not to feel forgotten and not to allow indifference to undermine our faith.

We are all a part of the church even when for good reason we cannot attend. Like the shut-ins, we too can pray for the church, for its ministry, its needs and its people. At the same time, those of us who are not limited must take the church to those who cannot attend. We must visit them regularly, bring them antidoron, and be God's presence in their lives. In this way we "bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." (Gal. 6:2).

This year Great and Holy Lent begins on February 27th I would ask you to commit yourself and your family this lenten season to becoming regular participants in the life of the Church through personal participation in the Holy Services and Sacraments.

Paternaly,

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Guidelines for Fasting

The fast for the forty days of Lent is indicated below, though many are not able to hold to the strict fast. We offer the following guidelines to be considered prayerfully with the guidance of your spiritual father and in consideration of any medical conditions or dietary requirements.

Strict Fast~ No Meat, Fish, Milk, Dairy Products, Oil, or Oil Products

Palm Sunday~ Fish, Oil & Wine permitted

FEAST OF THE ANNUNCIATION/MARCH 25TH~ All day: Fish, Oil & Wine Permitted
Shellfish are permitted throughout Great Lent

ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM ON FASTING

Do you fast? Give Me Proof of it by your works.

If you see a poor man, take pity on him.

If you see a friend being honored,
do not envy him.

Do not let only your mouth fast, but also the eye and the ear and the feet and the hands and all the members of our bodies.

Let the hands fast, by being free of avarice.

Let the feet fast, by ceasing to run after sin.

Let the eyes fast,

By disciplining them not to glare at that which is sinful.

Let the mouth fast from foul words
and unjust criticism.

For what good is it if we abstain from birds and fishes, but bite and devour our brothers?

May He who came to the world to save sinners
strengthen us to complete the fast with humility, have mercy on us and save us.

Jesus' Instructions on Fasting

“Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face so that you do not appear to men to be fasting but to your father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.”

Gospel of Matthew Chapter 6:16-18

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of Truth,
Present in all places and filling all things,
The treasury of blessings and Giver of life:
Come and abide in us.
Cleanse us from all impurity, and save our souls,
O Gracious Lord

Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and fasting with thanksgiving Let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding will keep your hearts and your minds in Jesus Christ.

~St. Paul's letter to the Philippians

The Prayer of St. Ephraim the Syrian

Read each week-day during Great Lent

O Lord and Master of my life, take from me
the spirit of sloth,
despair, lust of power, and idle talk.

But give rather the spirit of chastity, humility,
patience, and love to Thy servant.

Yea, O Lord and King, grant me to see my own transgressions,

and not to judge my brother, for blessed art
Thou, unto ages of ages.

Amen.

One key to a more fulfilling life is prayer. For Orthodox Christians, the aim of prayer is to enter into conversation with God. Prayer is sometimes referred to as dialogue with God. Often it is a waiting on God in silence. In the church it is defined as the lifting of the mind and heart to God, and also as walking in the presence of God. We turn our mind and thoughts towards Him. We mentally gaze at Him and speak with Him in reverence, fear, and hope. At times we speak to Him with words and at other times we stand in reverent silence. Saying nothing, but being aware of His presence. In this dialogue with God we praise Him and thank Him. We ask Him for what we need. Our mind and our hearts are open to Him. Prayer is not only repeating words, it is trust in God that he hears and directs us in His Way involving spiritual growth and development.

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church

REV. NICHOLAS ANCTIL
PASTOR

Greek Afternoon School

EVANGELIA ROMOUDI
SCHOOL DIRECTOR/PRINCIPAL

January 12, 2012

Dear Parents and Parishioners,

The teachers and I wish you and your children “Kali Chronia”, a happy and healthy new year.

As we begin the new year, we are excited about all the things that are going on in our Greek Afternoon School. We started off with cutting the traditional “vasilopita”, kindly provided by our PTA. The students were thrilled looking for the coin and discussing the various traditions related to the new year.

Our next cultural event is the celebration of the feast of the Three Hierarchs. We will discuss in the class about the lives and contributions of these great Fathers of the Church and how they remain an inspiration at school and at home. We will have a short presentation in the Social Hall on Sunday, January 29 during the Agapi hour.

On Saturday, February 11, our PTA will host the Apokriatiko Glendi, which is our School’s major fund raising event. We would like to invite you all to come celebrate the “Apokries” and support our School, too. The proceeds from this dance will provide our students with educational games, books and other material that will enrich the curriculum of the Greek Afternoon School.

On Friday, March 23 we will be celebrating the Greek Independence Day with a presentation at the Social Hall.

In the meantime, all groups are advancing in their respective academic curriculum. From the “Pediki Chara” to the Regents class the students and their teachers are working towards meeting the goals set at the beginning of the school year. Report cards are due on January 27.

As it has been the practice in the last years, the Regents class will start their Saturday preparatory classes this week and will continue until the date of the examination.

Finally, I would like to remind you that all the teachers and I value your input about your child’s educational experience and that your constructive criticism is always welcome. After all, we, parents and teachers, have a common goal: our children to love and speak the Greek language.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank Father Nick, the Parish Council and the PTA for their unconditional support of the Greek Afternoon School.

Best wishes,
Evangelia Romoudi, BA, MA
Director

Philoptochos Comings and Goings

Happy New Year every one! December went by in a flash, what a busy and fun time of year...and now, February is right around the corner filled with many more opportunities for all to get involved.

December 3rd started our busy month with the Thirteenth National Philoptochos Children's Medical Fund Luncheon at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Old Greenwich, CT with more than 650 attendees from throughout the United States. $204,000 was awarded to Children's Health and Research programs. Since the inception of the CMFL over $1.5 million has been donated to children's medical programs and facilities that offer care, treatment and innovative research and cures for children. Thank you to all who attended and supported this very worthwhile event.

December 4th we joined AHEPA to bring you Andre Gerolymatos to speak on the Security Crisis in the Eastern Mediterranean and the implications for Greece, Turkey, Israel, Iran and Syria. 50 people attended this successful and very informative event. Thank you Liz Zoulis for all your help.

December 8th was our Annual Candlelight Dinner. What a great way to celebrate the holidays. Our Christmas celebration included a lovely cocktail hour and a delicious dinner with a serenade of favorite Christmas carols. There was also a wonderful Holiday Boutique for early shopping Christmas, as well as, two SPECTACULAR raffles. What a wonderful evening! Thank you Cornelia Pappas, Joy Zegras and Eleni Zikopoulos and everyone on your committee for hosting such a festive holiday party.

During the Months of November and December, the Community Food Drive collected 1000 cans of food for the HOPE Food Pantry. Thank you to everyone who brought in food and an extra special thank you to the Sunday School students. We also delivered 40 hams for HOPE's holiday food baskets. Thank you Eva Dushas, Serene Romas, Alexandra Speres and Linda Faustini for your continued support of Hams For HOPE.

Hats and Gloves for the Homeless took place on December 18th. Hats and gloves were sold and then individually packaged with hand warmers, icons and Christmas cards with personal notes. These gifts were then distributed to the homeless during Christmas week. Thank you Despina Kartson and Antheta DeKnatel for organizing this thoughtful holiday project and thank you to all who participated.

December we also collected coats, blankets and socks for our Homeless Outreach Ministry. During the months of January, February and March we will continue to distribute blankets, coats and toiletries to the homeless we serve. Thank you to all who support our Homeless Outreach Ministry. Every little bit helps when you have nothing. Thank you Despina Kartson, Maria Scaros Mercado and your committee for your dedication to such a worthy outreach.

As you can see we had a very full month. If you didn't get a chance to join us in December, February is right around the corner filled with many more opportunities for all to get involved. We look forward to seeing you all!

Dear Fr. Ritsi,

Thank you for your work with the OCMC. The emails I receive keep our community informed of the wonderful work you do touching the lives of the needy in the name of Jesus Christ. It is an example for other Christians, young and old, to live and serve the way Christ taught us.

Some of the more memorable stories that I read, I share with children of our parish. This year I had the honor and pleasure of being the Lenten coin box "cheerleader". The children brought in about $600. More importantly, they were exposed to the plight of others and were given a way to help. Our parish priest, Father Nick Anctil, has a Lenten Sunday school program we implement each year which embraces Christ's picture of the saved in Matthew 25:35. We remind them to feed the hungry, cloth the naked, remember the sick, the imprisoned and the lonely. The coin boxes are one more way they can share God's love to others. We look forward to be able to do it again next year.

Our church parish was generous enough to include a donation of $400 toward the coin box donation to help make the children's efforts go further.

Warm regards,

Athena Gregory

Holy Trinity Church Sunday School Teacher

Dear Athena:

Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

Thank you so much for organizing Holy Trinity's participation in this year's Coin Box Program. It is truly inspiring to hear of the efforts that you put forth into this important program by being the "Cheerleader"! Sharing stories with the youth is such an important part of engaging young people in international missions and we look forward to working with you and the children for many years to come.

May you all have a joyful celebration of our Savior's Nativity and may the New Year be blessed.

With love in Christ,

Fr. Martin Ritsi
Executive Director

Holy Trinity Library

On Many Sundays after church services, the library committee will show any member of our parish throughout our vast collection of specialty books on our shelves. Please note the dates, in the Sunday Bulletin, called, Library Day. Why not take advantage of this time and place, to seek out titles of interest for yourself or a member of your family. Most of our volumes are not available in our public libraries. Come browse and borrow on any Sunday. You may also get some great ideas for gift giving. The very informative and MUST HAVE book by M. Rouvelas, Greek Customs and Traditions, is still available for purchase.

Happily, we can report the addition of six new books, donated by the following families.

The Landmark Arrian: the Campaigns of Alexander ~ Donated in memory of Damis Yancopoulos by Demetra and Joseph Keane

The Genesis of Science: The Story of Greek Imagination ~ Donated in memory of Steven Soropoulos by Linda and Mario Faustini

The Road to Emmaus: Pilgrimage as a Way of Life ~ Donated in memory of George Soropoulos by Linda and Mario Faustini

The End of Sparta ~ Donated in memory of George Marantis by Linda and Mario Faustini

Heaven is for Real for Kids ~ Donated in memory of Beverly Meaney by Linda and Mario Faustini

Women of the Bible ~ Donated in celebration of Sophie Louros's 90th birthday By Gigi and Richard Longo

YOUNG AT HEART

Forty four members of the Young at Heart began the new year with a meeting on January 5th. Lunch was served by Manos Louros, followed by the cutting of the Vasilopeta and many donated desserts.

Currently dues of $20 for the year 2012 are being collected. Any new members are welcome.

On January 12, twenty members attended a very entertaining production of "My Fair Lady" at the Elmsford Dinner Theatre. This is one of many events planned for the coming year.

A driver's education course by Mr. Sam Eskander of AARP will be given in April. The cost is $15 and can help to reduce automobile insurance. Registration is required in advance.

Also scheduled for the spring is a day trip to a casino and a two day one night bus trip to the Amish Country in Pennsylvania. Look for details in the Sunday church bulletin..

2012 Trinitarian Advertisement Contract

Dear friends of the Community,

In an effort to defray the cost of publishing our Trinitarian, the Parish Council would like to invite anyone who wishes to support the Community to offer a small donation of $250.00 for a “business card” sized ad which will be placed on the back inside pages of each publication for the calendar year, 2012.

We generally publish about 8 Trinitarians per year, and with this program, hope to cut our publication cost in half by gathering 24 ads which will take up the last three pages of the Trinitarian.

If you are interested in this program, please fill out the bottom portion of this appeal and enclose a business card that we will reproduce. Please also enclose a check made out to Holy Trinity Church for $250.00.
